Livestream Studio

Are you planning a product presentation, seminar, award show or panel discussion? You can reach your online audience live and direct from our Livestream Studio. This is possible in any of our 4 Amerpodia venues. By using our in-house furniture, we can create a variety of settings that are suitable for your livestream. Also for livestreams with a live audience, big or small, our studio is available. Our event managers are happy to advise you and discuss all possibilities.
